

NEVER FORGOTTEN

The greatest dad of all time
That's what you are to me
At times I did misunderstand
You tried to make me see

That life is oh so precious
Mistakes that we do make
You tried to make me realize
To give and not to take

To walk in love towards all
To forgive and let it go
Doing things in secret...
Not to put on a show

To treat a man with fairness
Not for the color of his skin
I remember when you told me
Somehow I knew that it was sin.
